FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favora-ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a eash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

THE EXECUTION OF TANTIA TOPEE. BOMBAY, April 26, 1859 .- The event of the fortnight in India has been the trial and exe-FIFTH cution of the far-famed Tantia Topee. He was hauged at Sepree on the afternoon of the 18th inst. In my last I conveyed to you the information that he had been captured; that Maun Sing had surrendered; and that the forces of Ferozeshah and the Rao Sahib had been nearly destroyed in the Seronge jungles. I shall now endeavor to describe the train of circumstances which led to such very desirable results. * * * * * * In the meantime, Maun Sing was making his peace with Government, and had taken up his residence in the camp of Major Meade at Sepree .tive in the neighborhood. Major Meade acepted his aid, and on the 7th instant M cy Neck Chains, Chatelaines... 8 00 to 18 00 Sing came reeling into the camp with the Gents' Fob and Vest Chains,.... 10 00 to 30 00 telligence that he had marked the game de-30 00 | telligence that he had marked the game de-It appears that he had met Tantia in at. jacent village, and had left him under Buttons and Bosom Studs..... 2 00 to 16 00 pretext of going to collect his men. Itsee however, of doing so, he rode straight to the 7 50 British camp and gave the necessary intomation. He then returned to the village and lay down with the man he had betrayed, to have a little sleep.

At a given signal, the Sepoys of the 9th Native Infantry rushed in and seized Tantia 7 50 almost before he was thoroughly awake. No resistance was offered, and the Pindaree leader was carried in irons into Sepree. On his 5 00 arrival here, he was at one placed in charge 30 00 of a strong guard, and every precaution taken to prevent either escape or rescue .-on On the 15th inst. he was brought to court-6 00 martial. The charges upon which he was 1 50 arrainged were confined to rebellion and opposing the British Government by force of 2 50 arms. The court did not long deliberate; and it soon became known all over the camp that he was to perish on the scaffold. At 5 P. M., on the evening of the 18th inst., he was conveyed to the place of execution in a dhooly, guarded by a company of the 3d Bengal Infantry, (Europeans.) After a delay of about twenty minutes, the charges, finding and sentence were read in English, a native translation having been previously read to the prisoner. When requested to mount the platform, he did so without assistance, evincing neither hesitation nor apprehension. He died without a struggle, and had it not been for his cruelties and his crimes, his stoicism might have been admired. Tantia Topee was a Brahmin of the Dekkan. He attached himself at an early age to the Court of the late Peishwa, Bajee Rao, and was from his boyhood, the constant companion of Dhuardoo Punt of Biedhoor, commonly called the Nana Sahib. He was well skilled in military tactics, and had made the old predatory system of Mahratta warfare his study. His age had been variously estimated, but his general appearance did not betoken it to be more than forty years. From the hour of his capture to that of his death he betrayed no symptoms of either trepidation or of despondency.
